Recommendations

Samuel is a dedicated student, constantly striving to improve his design skills and build on his considerable knowledge of architecture, design culture and discourse. Samuel has also been a tutor for Further Education students in Digital Media. This is a considerable position of responsibility and it is a testament to Samuel's professional and earnest approach that he is entrusted with it - JJ Brophy (Tutor)

Sam spent time to get to know our design needs, to the point where we could trust him to design and sign-off work on the first draft. We worked closely to produce a number of different products: a logo, business cards, decals, posters and flyers. He is a rigorous time keeper who meets deadlines and schedules around our needs. - Stuart Wilson (Client)
